VACCINATION CLINIC

On July 21, 2021, St. Stephen Baptist Church and Servants Arms hosted a food distribution and Vaccination Clinic sponsored by Supervisor Hilda L. Solis. A Grassroots grant was received and used to purchase gas gift cards that were distributed to those receiving the vaccine.

A second vaccination clinic was held on August 11th to provide the second vaccine.

Mission Statement

Through the embodiment of God's love build a stronger community one person at a time. To deliver meaningful services and resources to all in need, one home at a time, one city at a time.

Vision Statement

To extend our arms to embrace, support and uplift those in need by aiding in the relief of social and economic stigmas in our community. To be "God's Servants", "in God's Service", demonstrating compassion for all people.
